

NASHVILLE UNION.

PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Nashville, Tenn., May 9, 1862.

WHEREAS, Certain persons, unfriendly and hostile to the Government of the United States, have banded themselves together, and are now going at large through many of the counties in this State, arresting, maltreating and plundering Union citizens wherever found;

Now, therefore, I, ANDREW JOHNSON, Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim that in every instance in which a Union man is arrested and maltreated by the marauding bands aforesaid, five or more rebels from the most prominent in the immediate neighborhood shall be arrested, imprisoned, and otherwise dealt with as the nature of the case may require; And further, in all cases in which the property of citizens, loyal to the Government of the United States is taken or destroyed, full and ample remuneration shall be made to them out of the property of such rebels in the vicinity as have sympathized with, and given aid, comfort, information or encouragement to the parties committing such depredations.

This order will be executed in letter and spirit. All citizens are hereby warned under heavy penalties from entertaining, receiving or encouraging such persons so banded together or in any wise connected therewith.

By the Governor:

ANDREW JOHNSON.

EDWARD H. EAST,
Secretary of State.

PROSPECTUS

NASHVILLE UNION.

The NASHVILLE UNION was commenced a few weeks since, for the purpose of opposing the Rebel Southern Confederacy, and of advancing the restoration of Federal authority, without any abatement, over all the States which have attempted to secede. It holds as friends all who support, and as foes all who oppose the Union of the States. It has no watchword but FREEDOM and NATIONALITY.

With rebels and traitors, it has no compromise to make. It contends for the Federal Constitution and the Laws made in pursuance thereof as the Sciences Law or the Like, anything in the Constitution and Laws of any of the States to the contrary notwithstanding.

It contends for the Union of the States, because without it the preservation of our liberties and institutions and the organization of society itself are wholly impossible. Therefore, whatever stands in the way of crushing out the rebellion and restoring the Union must perish, no matter by what name it be called.

To the people of Tennessee, ever renowned for their devotion to Liberty and Union, until they were betrayed to the rated despotism at Richmond by a perfidious Governor and corrupt Legislature, and who have felt so keenly the awful curse of treason and anarchy, we appeal for support. Let the names of rebel officers-holders, Vigilance Committees, and Minute Men, who have filled our borders with mourning, be gibbeted before the world. Let those ambitious and avaricious men who have plotted our ruin for their own aggrandizement be fastened to the pillory of shame, no matter how high their position in society. Let it be shown how the self-styled defenders of "Southern Rights" are now leading marauding bands of free-sabotage and miscreants over our State, kidnapping negroes, stealing horses and cattle, breaking into houses, burning railroad bridges and cars, and murdering unarmed citizens in cold blood. Let the truth, so long excluded by the southern conspirators, now circulate freely through every neighborhood, and our cause will assuredly triumph. Will not loyal men everywhere aid us in the dissemination of facts and the advocacy of Free Government?

Owing to a very limited number of Post-offices at present in Tennessee, we have not yet been able to commence the Tri-weekly and Weekly issues. We will begin a Tri-weekly when we have five hundred, and the Weekly when we have a thousand subscribers.

All communications on business with the Office, will be addressed to the PUBLISHERS of the UNION, and all communications to the Editor will be addressed to H. C. MURKIN.

Editors of loyal newspapers will do a great kindness by re-establishing the thrice or its inheritance. The current transactions in Tennessee for months to come will be highly interesting to all lovers of their country and her free institutions, and the columns of the UNION will furnish the earliest and most reliable history of these events.
